Official Instagram

Nak-hwa (falling fire ritual), designated as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Sejong City, is a traditional ceremony that drives away negative energy and wishes for good fortune.

Experience the gentle falling sparks in the deepening night, accompanied by the crackling sound of fire.

IMPORTANT NOTES

KEEPING A SAFE DISTANCE

Please stay outside the designated safety line when viewing. When viewing up close, ash or embers may enter your eyes, so wearing a hat and glasses is recommended. Please be cautious to avoid damage to clothing.

PEDESTRIAN SAFETY

As it may be dark, please watch your step when moving. Stopping or sitting in walking areas can be dangerous, so please keep a safe distance and move slowly.

RESTRICTIONS ON VEHICLES

Motorcycles and electric scooters are prohibited in the park. Bicycle access may be temporarily restricted during the event for visitor safety.

EMERGENCY SITUATIONS

In case of emergency, please notify nearby staff or visit an information booth.
